(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b), nonsectarian and non-proselytizing voluntary benedictions, invocations or prayers which are initiated and given by a student volunteer or student volunteers may be permitted at schools which are supported, in whole or in part, by the public funds of the state. Such permission shall not be construed to indicate any support, approval or sanction by the State of Tennessee or any governmental personnel or official of the contents of any such benedictions, invocations or prayers or to be the promotion or establishment of any religion, religious belief or sect. The State of Tennessee shall have no responsibility for defending the permitting of such benedictions, invocations or prayers and shall not be a party to any action involving the permitting of such benedictions, invocations or prayers.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a), (b) and (c), non-sectarian and non-proselytizing voluntary benedictions, invocations or prayers, which are initiated and given by a student volunteer or student volunteers may be permitted on public school property during assemblies, sporting events, entertainment events and other similar events that are open to the general public within the counties of the state. Such permission shall not be construed to indicate any support, approval or sanction by the State of Tennessee or any governmental personnel or official of the contents of any such benedictions, invocations or prayers or to be the promotion or establishment of any religion, religious belief or sect. The State of Tennessee shall have no responsibility for defending the permitting of such benedictions, invocations or prayers and shall not be a party to any action involving the permitting of such benedictions, invocations or prayers.

(e) If any of the provisions, sentences, clauses, phrases, words or parts of this section are held unconstitutional, void or invalid, the remaining provisions, sentences, clauses, phrases, words or parts thereof shall continue in full force and effect, it being the legislative intent now hereby declared that any of the same would have been passed even if such unconstitutional, void or invalid provision, sentence, clause, phrase, word or part thereof had not been included therein.

TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1993 -- FORTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATIVE DAY

On motion, Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Rep. Davidson moved to adopt Amendment No. 2 as follows:

Amendment No. 2

Amend House Bill No. 1111 by deleting from the amendatory language of Section 1(c) the following:
